We Are Hiring

Kinsight is a Non-Profit Organization that operates out of Tri-Cities and New Westminster. From infants to seniors, we serve over 2,000 families with children, youth and adults each year. Our work is guided by the people we serve and tailored to enhance growth, development and personal well-being. We work with hundreds of community members and professionals to welcome and include all people, and foster vibrant and healthy communities. Our mission is to provide options and opportunities for people to have meaningful relationships and fulfilling lives.

We are hiring summer students for positions across all areas of the organization, to provide support to children, youth and adults with developmental disabilities to ensure access to community, opportunities for peer connections and full participation in activities of choice during the summer.

You are eligible to apply if you are registered as a full time student for Spring 2018, and you intend to return in Fall 2018 to an educational program such as:

- ✓ Child & Youth Care
- ✓ Social Work
- ✓ Education
- ✓ Classroom and Community Support
- ✓ Early Childhood Education
- ✓ Therapeutic Recreation
- ✓ Information Management
- ✓ Library, Information and Archival Studies

If you want to spend a fun and active summer gaining valuable employment experience in your field, we invite you to apply for one of our summer positions. You'll be part of a great team that thrives with the challenge of delivering on our mission every day. Please send your resume and cover letter (you can include a brief video biography of yourself if you like) to the following: employment@kinsight.org.

These are full time, temporary positions that require Union membership, a satisfactory criminal record check, a valid BC Class 5 Driver's License, use of personal vehicle and a current First Aid/CPR certificate. The positions are open to male and female applicants. These positions are subject to funding approval through Canada Summer Jobs 2018. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
