

Job Posting

Infant Development Consultant (Full Time)

---

Be part of a dynamic and forward thinking team that is continuously looking at how we best support families with children birth-3 who have a developmental delay or disability or are at risk for a developmental delay. We are seeking someone for our team who knows the importance of attachment-oriented and family-centred practices. And someone who reflects on each interaction with families and seeks out feedback from colleagues and the team regularly.

As an Infant Development Consultant you support families primarily in their home by encouraging and facilitating parent-child interaction building on the family's strengths, daily routines and resources. You bring your experience and understanding of child development alongside your interpersonal and communication skills to enhance families' knowledge and attention to their child's development. You help families identify opportunities to celebrate their child's development. You work collaboratively with families to plan, identify and chose activities and community resources.

Why work for us:

We are connected through a shared vision to create a world where Everyone's welcome. Everyone belongs. Everywhere.

We value the work that we do, as well as the people we work with.

Benefits include:

- Comprehensive extended health benefits
- Employee Assistance Program
- Municipal Pension Plan

Qualifications:

- A 4 year degree from a University or College of recognized standing in a field related to Infant Development (e.g. child and youth care, social work, psychology, early childhood education)
- Minimum 3 years experience working with and facilitating a process of individual planning and service coordination for families of infants/young children with developmental delays and disabilities

Additional Requirements:

- Valid BC Drivers license, clean driving record and use of personal vehicle
- Satisfactory criminal record check
- Union membership with the BCGEU
- Current First Aid/CPR Certificate
- Eligible to work in Canada
