

JOB POSTING

Applications are invited for: Community Support Worker – Temporary: May 1 – Aug 30, 2019

Job Posting No: 2001 and 2002 (2 Openings)

Hours: 35 hours/week (Monday to Friday)

Pay Level: $19.45 - $22.65/hour

Location: Port Coquitlam or New Westminister

Kinsight (formerly the Simon Fraser Society for Community Living) has been providing valuable services to the Tri-Cities and New Westminister communities for over 60 years.

Our Vision: Everyone's Welcome, Everyone Belongs, Everywhere. Our mission is to promote options and opportunities for people to have meaningful relationships and fulfilling lives.

Position Summary:

Under the guidance and support of the Community Inclusion Supervisor and through active team participation, the Community Support Worker will be responsible for providing assistance and support to people with developmental and physical disabilities. Community Support Workers will create and provide creative opportunities that facilitate learning and participation through accessing their community. These opportunities will reflect and respect the personal preferences goals and choices of each person. The activities focused on will include providing skills development through one to one teaching of individuals in the community - home visits, bus training, leisure skills, financial management, cooking, general household management and creating community connections.

Qualifications

- Diploma in Human Services or equivalent education (e.g. Community Support Worker, Therapeutic Recreation)
- Experience supporting people with a variety of abilities to access activities that take place in the community or one of the organization's facilities
- Experience providing support to adults with developmental and physical disabilities
- Experience physically assisting people with personal care needs in a respectful and safe manner
- Experience in the organization and facilitation of the Person Centered Planning Process
- Positive behavioral support techniques, knowledge and experience in skill based training
- Knowledge and ability to use augmentative communication, strong oral and written communication skills including report writing skills
- Possess strong computer skills
- Ability to interact effectively with individuals and families
- Class 5 Driver's License; satisfactory driving record; required to use own vehicle;
- Unrestricted Class 4 Driver's License an asset
- Ability to interact effectively with individuals and families
- Community Care First Aid/CPR, NVCI and Food Safe certificates
- This position requires BCGEU union membership.

Please submit application to:

Andrea Mohr at employment@kinsight.org